U. of M. Enrollment Now Over 3,000

With 3,000 students already enrolled at the University of Maine for the fall semester, officials said that the total would be about 3,060 when students taking the two-year agricultural course have registered. About 575 of the students are veterans of the Korean War and 46 veterans of World War II.

This is the 57th year that classes have been held at Maine's State University. The institution opened September 21, 1888, with 12 students.

Registration figures now are as follows: graduate students 92, seniors 518, juniors 596, sophomores 786, freshmen 933. There are 2248 men and 761 women enrolled.

Those registered from the Oxford County area are as follows:

Andover: Leon M. Akers, Frances E. Dresser.

Bethel: Robert W. Hastings, Janice Lord, Laura M. Wilson.

West Bethel: Roland J. Kneeland.

East Brawnfield: Roger E. Bucknell, Franklin A. Bucknell.

Canton: Clinton A. Conant, Warren S. Goding, Kenneth C. Hutchinson, Olive M. Conant.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

We have picked up two young female dogs, one is a tan-brown hound type, the other a sable and white collie type dog. We will very much appreciate the owner or owners calling either Mrs. Margaret Baker or the Town office, Tel. 60, as soon as possible.

You will notice elsewhere in this paper the notice of the Special Town Meeting to be held Friday evening at seven o'clock (daylight time). There are two different items for your consideration.

One is the purchase of a power grader. Total price, $5,000.00. This may be paid for during a 20 month period with no interest charge.

To the taxpayer who now pays $135.00 per year this will mean (if paid in one year) that the taxpayer will pay $140.00 if all other town expenses remain the same.

Those of you who live on gravel or dirt roads may benefit the most during the summer. Those who live in town would receive more benefit during the winter months from this type of machine.

The other question is in regard to a new street that has had several false starts, with the now apparent best solution to be considered Friday evening. I sincerely hope we may have a good attendance and get a real expression of the public feeling.

PERHAM RE-ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSALIST MEN OF MAINE

The 1954-55 officers of the Association of Universalist Men of Maine were elected at the Bangor Convention, Sept. 23 and 29, as follows:

President, Harold G. Perham, of West Paris; Secretary-Treasurer, J. Albert Robinson, Brunswick; Directors—James E. Philoon, Auburn; Harry Foster, Canton; Robert H. Boothby, Livermore; Everett Gowen, Oakland; W. Mafoed Mann, Norwary; Carl E. Piper, Fairfield; Everett L. Haley, Brunswick; G. Harrison Kennard, Rumford; Andrew Snyder, Randolph.

Both Mr. Philoon and Mr. Perham are members of the National Board, Mr. Philoon serving as National Historian and Mr. Perham serving on the National Executive Board.

Mr. Snyder is the new President of the Universalist Church of Maine, and Mr. Robinson was re-elected Treasurer, UCM, and Mr. Philoon, secretary, UCM.

FIVE TOWN TEACHERS

The first meeting of the school year of the Five Town Teachers Club was held Monday evening, October 4th, at the Greenwood City School House.

The Scholarship Committee reported that $100 each was awarded to Miss Mary Kneeland, who entered Gorham State Teachers College, and the Misses Adelle Kimball and Christine Willard, who are seniors at the same college.

The president appointed Mrs. Frances Gunther, Mrs. Doris Lord, and Mrs. Laura Gile to serve as a committee to plan the observance of American Education Week.

A very enjoyable program was presented: Musical selections, vocal, saxophone and clarinet, were given by James Libby and Vincent Battles of Portland; "A Circus Slide Show" by pupils of the Greenwood City School; and a Skit, "Say, Dad," by Colista Morgan and Katherine Hakala.

Delicious refreshments were served by the committee: Mrs. Ruth Ring, Mrs. Colista Morgan and Mrs. Doris Hayes.

GIRL SCOUTS

Patrol 4 held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of their leader. We are very pleased to have three new girls join our patrol. They are, Barbara Angvine, Dolores Lane, and Julie Reynolds. Election of officers was held and the following girls were elected: President, Linda Brown; Vice President, Nikki McMillin; Secretary, Barbara Angvine; Treasurer, Barbara Monfette; Inspector, Carolyn Chapman. Color Guard, consists of Dixie Brown, Dolores Lane, Claire Berry and Lorenda Freeman.

It was voted to hold our annual Halloween Party Oct. 27. The following committees were appointed: Entertainment—Lorenda Freeman, and Dolores Lane; Refreshments—Linda Brown, Barbara Angvine, and Polly Hatatal. Everyone is to come in costume and make your own mask if possible.

We decided to pay the registration dues for our three new members from our treasury. It does seem nice to have money enough in our treasury to pay all our registrations this year.

The meeting was closed with the Goodnight Circle and Taps.

Purity Chapter, OES, met at the Masonic Hall, at 8 p. m., Wednesday for inspection. Mrs. Elizabeth Calderwood Biddleford, grand conductress, was the inspecting officer. Supper was served in the dining room at 6:30.

Meeting Friday on Grader Purchase and New Street

Matters of importance to the town of Bethel will be considered at the special meeting to be held at Odeon Hall Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

The purchase of a power grader by the town at an initial expense of $2,000 is the first question offered. For many years the road department has used for grading purposes a road machine which was originally designed to be drawn by horses. Changed to rubber tires and hauled behind a truck, it has served long and well but at a rather high repair cost. Use of a modern machine may make possible better work at a saving in manpower.

The citizens are also asked to consider acceptance of a street location leading from Paradise to house lots adjoining the southern boundary of the Crescent Park School land. As laid out the street would open up several other lots which should not lack for purchasers, and the construction of the street would be a benefit to the town. The land owners ask no damages and that the right of way will be cleared without charge. Estimated cost is $2,800.

This is the fourth location to be suggested. The first was turned down in the annual town meeting. The second and third, leading from Paradise and Mason Streets respectively, were discouraged at public hearing held on the locations. No objections were voiced at the hearing at the latest site which was held there on Monday Sept. 27.

GUILD TO HOLD FIRST MEETING NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Congregational Church Guild will open its current year of activities with a pot luck supper on Wednesday, October 13th. To be served at 6:30 p. m. in the church dining room. Hostesses will be members of the Executive Committee.

After a business meeting the Misses Anita Hale and Verna Swift, of the Gould Academy faculty, will show slides of the vacation trip during the past summer.

A cordial invitation is extended at this time to all members, friends and visitors to attend any and all meetings of the Guild during the coming year.

MRS. MERRILL HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Beverly Noyes was hostess at a bridal shower Friday afternoon at her home, honoring Mrs. Carl Merrill, nee Barbara Jodrey. She received many gifts. Decorations were white candles and naturalistic and a decorated bridal cake made by Mrs. Noyes. Patricia Gunther and Rose Beverage assisted with refreshments of sandwiches, cake and punch.

Those attending were Carolyn Weymouth, Lorelle Jordan, Jane Smith, Suzanne Wright, Sue Stowell, Mary Jane Chapman, Rose Beverage, Patricia Gunther, Patricia Monfette, Lorita York, Margaret Noyes, Mrs. Walter Jodrey, Mrs. Frances Noyes, the guest of honor and the hostess. Those who sent gifts but were unable to attend were Mary Belle Bennett, June Merrill, Dale Stevens, Neeta Gordon, Sylvia Ring, Ruth Mordecai, Diane Watson, Judith Freeman, and Eleanor Sumner.

The Week in Oxford County

Fryeburg Fair opened officially for its 104th showing on Tuesday. There's a big midway. The exhibition hall is filled with fine displays. The 4-H Clubs are exhibiting in a new building by themselves. The livestock showing is of the usual excellence.

John McKee, West Paris, reports he is still picking strawberries from plants set out last May. Warren McCulloch, 16, of Rumford Point, suffered fractures of both legs when he was thrown from an auto on route 17 near Rumford Sunday.

Announcement was made that Roger N. Woodcock will succeed Albert A. Rowbotham of Auburn as publisher of the weekly Rumford Times.

Heavy morning weather kept the crowd small on Friday, Farmers' Day, at North Waterford Fair. The exhibition hall was well filled with excellent displays. Farm products, fancy work, cut flowers, and potted plants, and 4-H exhibits. The midway had its usual attractions of games, shows, rides and eating places. Both nights featured dancing in the pavilion on the grounds.

Mrs. Ruth C. Deaneau, Oxford County Home Demonstration Agent, will receive the distinguished service award at the annual meeting of the National Home Demonstration Bureau next week.

Week end guests at Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Donahue's were Alan Myette, Newton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lombard, and Mrs. Eugene Brown, and Mrs. Marina Lombard, Harman; Rev. Hilda Ives of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Parker and family of Auburn.

A family supper party was held honoring Miss Beatrice Brown on her birthday Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown. Those present were: Mrs. Leona Elick and Carol, Bo Williams, Cecil Conrad, Miss Beatrice Brown, Miss Julia Brown, Mrs. Fred Edwards, Mrs. Leroy Brown and Mrs. Alfred Brown, Julia and Vivian.

Thursday, October 7
Read Luke 23:34-43.

No man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6)

Recently a young man came to see me. Holding out his New Testament, he said earnestly, "From where should I read to find peace and rest? I cannot sleep for my sins. The Lord is far from me; I cannot get nearer to Him." I showed him the text, "I am the way...." and other texts about forgiveness through Christ.

We prayed together. He prayed: "Thank You, Lord, You have prepared the way. Even to me You give permission to walk in it. Thank You. Help me to walk with You and to help others to walk."

Before he left, he said, "Thank You. You have shown me the way; I have rest now."

Without Christ, can man come to God as loving Father? No, never. Jesus shows us the only way to God as Father, when He says, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." He takes us to the Father. He opens our eyes to know Him. He makes it possible for us to enjoy living with God, because of the life He gives us. Therefore, Christ says, "I am the way...." no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

Prayer

Heavenly Father help us to love Thy way; to love Jesus Christ, our way to Thee, and Thy way to us. In this love, let us live, yet not us but Christ in us, the Christ who has taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven.... Amen."

Thought For The Day
I will help someone to Christ today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Gary were tendered a reception at Pleasant Valley Grange Hall Tuesday evening. They were married at Waterford, Sept. 24th, by Rev. Wilbur Bull.

The young couple entered the hall to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Fred Lovejoy and were seated under an archway of evergreen with pink and white bows. The hall was prettily decorated in pink and white and baskets of fall garden flowers.

A program was presented including musical reading "Welcome" by Mrs. Cleveland Lovejoy and Mrs.

Fred Lovejoy; piano solo, Miss Ruth Hall; musical skit, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilbert; piano solo, Miss Ruth Hall; vocal duet, "I Love You Truly," Mrs. Catherine Lovejoy and Mrs. Eleanor Lovejoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary with the assistance of Mrs. Claude Lombard, mother of the bride and Mrs. Nelson Stetson, aunt of the groom received their friends under the archway.

Refreshments included a wedding cake made by Mrs. Adeline Clough, cousin of the groom, were served. Mrs. Adeline Clough served the cake, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lovejoy served punch, other assisting in serving were Mrs. Cleveland Lovejoy, Mrs. Nellie Stetson and Mrs. Claude Lombard.

Many gifts were received by the honored couple including money and a living room chair presented by Mrs. Bette Gilbert in behalf of Mr. Gary's friends and employers at Hanover Dowel Co.

Mrs. Cleveland Lovejoy had charge of the guest book. Gifts were in charge of Mrs. Adeline Clough and Mrs. Cleveland Lovejoy.

Hostesses and brides wore coronas of fall flowers.

Guests were present from Bethel, Upton and West Bethel.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mason, Miss Jean Ferran, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Lovejoy, Eugene McAllister, Arthur F. God's Answer to Job's Perplexity, Isa. 40:1-10

Golden Text: Psalm 146:10.

After his long debate with his three friends and after he had refuted the ancient doctrine that suffering is always the result and punishment of sin in a man's life, Job was answered by the Lord out of a whirlwind.

God at first rebuked Job for his searching questions and he asked if Job had been present at the founding of the world and was responsible for all the wonders of the universe. Job was overwhelmed in his misery and shame and he declared that he abhorred himself and repented in dust and ashes.

The reply of God to Job out of the whirlwind did not bring a full answer to Job's questioning concerning the presence of evil in the world with all its sufferings and sorrows. The reason for his own suffering every man must learn for himself. And with faith in the eternal goodness, he can find help in time of need.

God's answer was all-sufficient for Satan. The adversary of man and of God was taught that faith in God can rise above all suffering and that men can be good because God is good and it is his will that men be good. The test of Job was a success. It was proven that there is disinterested goodness on earth and that God will honor the man who is true to the right.

Read Luke 23:34-43.

No man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6)

Recently a young man came to see me. Holding out his New Testament, he said earnestly, "From where should I read to find peace and rest? I cannot sleep for my sins. The Lord is far from me; I cannot get nearer to Him." I showed him the text, "I am the way...." and other texts about forgiveness through Christ.

We prayed together. He prayed: "Thank You, Lord, You have prepared the way. Even to me You give permission to walk in it. Thank You. Help me to walk with You and to help others to walk."

Before he left, he said, "Thank You. You have shown me the way; I have rest now."

Without Christ, can man come to God as loving Father? No, never. Jesus shows us the only way to God as Father, when He says, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." He takes us to the Father. He opens our eyes to know Him. He makes it possible for us to enjoy living with God, because of the life He gives us. Therefore, Christ says, "I am the way...." no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

Prayer

Heavenly Father help us to love Thy way; to love Jesus Christ, our way to Thee, and Thy way to us. In this love, let us live, yet not us but Christ in us, the Christ who has taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven.... Amen."

Thought For The Day

SPORTS FLASHES

The Sporting News
by J. G. Taylor Spink

The Sporting News Names Moon, Grim at Rookies of the Year

Bob Grim, Yankee pitcher, and Wally Moon, Cardinal outfielder were named the rookies of the year in the major leagues by The Sporting News in the national baseball weekly's ninth annual selection of the top freshman stars.

In a canvass of sports writers, umpires and players, Grim drew 134 votes for the rookie honor in the American League. His closest rival was third baseman Jim Fingers of the Athletics, with 14 votes. Moon received 126 votes in the National League balloting to eight for outfielder Hank Aaron of the Braves.

Other votes among eligible N. L. rookies included six for shortstop Ernie Banks and two for second baseman Gene Baker, the Cubs' fine double-play combination; four for Brooks Lawrence, Cardinal pitcher, and one for shortstop Alex Grammas, also of the Redbirds.

The standout performance of Grim and Moon served to take the youngsters and their club officials off the spot. The Sporting News pointed out:

"Moon was thrust into Enos Slaughter's shoes on the eve of the season after the Cardinals had sold their veteran outfielder to the Yankees in a deal that was unpopular with St. Louis fans. Ironically, the Old War Horse was Vally's idol, the reasons he had signed with Cardinals instead of one of several other clubs.

However, from the time that he hit a home run in his first major league appearance at bat until he wound up the season with a four-bagger to win the final game, Moon was no less than a terrific triple threat. He batted .303, led the club in stolen bases with 18 and sparked in the field. His accomplishments at the plate included 193 hits, 106 runs, 29 doubles, nine triples, 12 homers and 75 runs batted in.

Fan criticism in New York also was keen over the Yankees' sale of Vic Raschi to the Cardinals, but Grim, like Moon, proved a star replacement for a departed veteran. At the end of the season, Raschi had won only eight games in the National League, while Grim wrote his name in the Yankees' history book.

The 24-year-old righthander, who came out of service in the Marines to make good after Class A experi-area during World War II. He later re-enlisted and has served several years in the air force being stationed at several air bases overseas and in this country. He had been stationed in New Mexico until his recent leave began. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are on a honeymoon at the present time, destination unknown, after which he will report for duty October 20.

The football season is beginning and, in this connection, our State Police have a special message for week end motorists. They ask drivers to keep in mind that football crowds are inclined to be careless and inattentive. They urge us to adjust our speeds to fit these traffic conditions and to be prepared for sudden stops.

ROBERTS - RUOKOLAINEN

At a quiet ceremony on Tuesday evening, October 5, Mrs. Faye Billings Ruokolainen of Milton and Mr. David E. Roberts were united in marriage at a double ring service by Rev. Eleanor Forbes at her home in Buckfield. The attendants were the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Les Billings, and the groom's brother, Gordon L. Roberts. The groom enlisted in the army and served in the Pacific ence at Binghamton in the Eastern League in 1951, won 20 games and lost only six to rate as the first Yankee rookie hurler to reach the 20-victory mark since Russell Ford in 1910. Grim pitched 199 innings in 37 games with an earned-run average of 3.30.

The Sporting News began its rookie of the year awards with the selection of Del Epps of the Phillies in 1946. Jackie Robinson of the Dodgers was named in '47 and Richie Ashburn of the Phillies in '48. The following year, the baseball weekly began naming a star in each league, picking Don Newcombe of the Dodgers and Roy Selvers of the Browns. In 1950, however, the poll gave Whitey Ford of the Yankees such an overwhelming vote that the southpaw was made a single selection.

With the resumption of dual choices, Willie Mays of the Giants and Minnie Minoso of the White Sox were picked in 1951. Jos Black of the Dodgers and Clint Courtney of the Browns in '52, and Harvey Kuenn of the Tigers and Junior Gilliam of the Dodgers in '53.

The Sporting News last year also established a clear-cut definition of a rookie as a player with less than 45 days of service in previous seasons in the majors. Under this requirement, Bob Turley of the Orioles, Dean Stone of the Senators, Al Kaline of the Tigers and Gene Conley of the Braves were ruled out of contention as not bona fide recruits this season.

The 1954 Chicago White Sox, despite their fadeout at the finish, totaled 94 victories. For a third-place team that victory total was topped only when the New York Yankees won 95 in 1920. The 1948 Yankees and the 1950 Boston Red Sox also won 94.

The Sporting News reveals that every club in the two major leagues except one—the Boston Red Sox—occupied or shared first place at least once during the 1954 pennant season. United States Policy in Indochina Dates Back to Vandenberg Resolution

By Walter Sheard
National Weekly Newspaper Service
(This is the second in a series of four articles relative to the Indochina war where a truce has recently been signed.)

United States policy in Indochina dates back to 1948. Basically it is set out in the resolution of June of that year sponsored by the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg. It pledges our assistance to guarantee that weaker nations may develop in freedom, but these conditions are under a system of collective security, or of collective defense.

In other words the United States is willing to enter into an agreement with the states of Indochina, and with other nations in the far east, or with our allies, Britain and France, to guarantee the freedom of these weaker nations.

It was under the terms of the Vandenberg resolution that our present Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles in 1951 went to the Far East representing our then Secretary of State Dean Acheson, in an attempt to set up such a system or pact in the area.

He was partly successful only. He succeeded in forming separate pacts with the Philippines, with Japan, and a third with Australia and New Zealand, the so-called ANZUS pact.

Unfortunately it was the colonial status of Indochina in the French Union which made us suspect. Indochina wanted its freedom. We were allied with France and France did not move fast enough in giving independence to the Indochinese states.

Secretary Dulles recently put it this way: "We are not prepared to go in for a defense of colonialism. We are only going to go in for defense of liberty and independence and freedom. We don't go in alone. We go in where other nations which have an important stake in the area recognize the peril as we do."

However even under this policy

Thought is the soul of act.

we have poured billions of dollars into Indochina for military aid and material to help the French, hard-pressed both militarily and economically, against the communists. We have given aid to the Indochinese themselves for rehabilitation, public health improvement, projects and other means to increase the welfare of the people. We have conducted exchange of persons program bringing students, teachers, leaders to this country for study and advanced training in engineering, agriculture, public roads, mass education.

When the French returned to Indochina after World War II in 1945, the Japanese, who had overrun the entire peninsula, had reduced the people and the country to a state of abject poverty. It took years for the French to rebuild, and at the same time fight a war which lasted over seven years. This was one of the factors which prevented the independence which had been promised in 1949. French investments run into millions of dollars in rubber plantations, mines. What few roads and railroads were left had to be rebuilt. Even today the rivers are the chief highways and lines of communication in the terrain of mountains, vast jungles, fertile deltas and virgin timberlands. Only two ports serve the country, Haiphong at the mouth of the Red River in the north, now in Communist hands, and the twin cities of Saigon and Cholon in the delta of the Mekong.

To sell our friendship to the Indochinese leaders themselves has been an uphill job, despite our known attitude toward giving freedom to smaller nations, such as our action in the Philippines. We are pictured by the wily Communists as the occupying masters in Japan, and because of our alliance with France our proffer of aid was held up as just more colonial rule. All this despite the fact that the United States has recognized Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia as sovereign nations. Britain and 32 other free nations also recognize their sovereign status, but only two Asian countries do recognize them — Korea and Thailand.

Vietnam maintains a diplomatic mission in Washington, and in London, Rome, and Bangkok. Laos has a mission in Bangkok and Washington. There is conclusive evidence during the past several months that this distrust of the United States has been gradually disappearing, particularly among the top leaders in the associated states. Bao Dai, chief of state, and the Vietnamese president Nguyen van Tam have managed to set up a fairly stable government and, with U. S. help, both in money and training, largely increased the national army under a defense ministry, with the nucleus of a general staff started under General Nguyen van Hinh, who served as a pilot in the European theatre of operations during world war II.

However, since the great appeasement at Geneva, whether this new found trust will deteriorate or not is a matter for conjecture.

Commenting on the Geneva settlement, Secretary Dulles said that while we do not like the outcome, we were not a party to the conference results and that in accordance with the U. N. charter we would not seek to overthrow the settlement.

"The important thing, from now on," Mr. Dulles said, "is not to mourn the past, but to seize the future opportunity to prevent the loss in northern Vietnam from leading to the extension of communism throughout southeast Asia and the Southwest Pacific. In this effort all the free nations should profit by the lessons of the past."

(Editor's note: The next article will discuss why Indochina is considered so important to the United States.)

GOULD ACADEMY

GOULD ELEVEN AT NORWAY

SATURDAY

Goald Academy's second 1954 game will be at Norway High this Saturday at 2 p. m. Coach Scott's Huskies got off to a good start last week with a 27-0 win over South Paris. The team will probably use the same starting line-up as they all weathered the opener with no casualties. Rodman Barlow, a reserve lineman will be out for the remainder of the season due to a shoulder injury at Paris, and Bill Daley, regular end, who has not yet seen service will not be available for another week. South Paris has a one touchdown victory over Norway which leaves the Huskies favored to win this Saturday.

SOUTH PARIS DEFEATED

Goald opened the 1954 grid season with a victory over South Paris by a score of 27-0 at the Oxford County Fair Grounds last Saturday. The Huskies' captain, Edward Burnham, scored twice with sparkling displays and center David Biggins tallied on a pass interception. Bob Whitley and Lynn Foster were the Cardinals' best gainers.

Summary: Touchdowns—Burnham 2, Murphy 1, Biggins 1. Points After Touchdowns: V Corkum 3 (placekicks).

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM WINS OPENER

Placing five runners in the first six places, Goald defeated Dixfield High School 16:45 last Friday at Dixfield. It was the opening start for the Huskies who uncovered two capable new runners in John Chase and Fred Fanning who took first and second respectively. Captain Bill Coolidge sped into third.

THIS IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, OCT. 3 TO 9

Maine farm families are asked to look for and eliminate fire hazards in their homes, barns, and on their farms this week. This is being observed as National Fire Prevention Week, and has been so proclaimed by President Eisenhower. During the past year farm fires have caused a loss of about 130 million dollars worth of American property and the death of about three thousand farm people. And the worst of it is, more of these fires are preventable.

slot followed by Frank Benson who cut down his opponent's lead at the tape to cop fourth. Bob Edney picked up sixth position to end the Goald scoring. Two freshmen runners, B. Benson and G. Whitten, showed possibilities in placing eighth and ninth ahead of all but two Dixfield runners.

This Thursday at 3:30 p. m., the Goald team will run against Fryeburg Academy on the local course. Fryeburg was state preparatory school champions in 1953 and 1954, and as they have four of last year's team back, they should present a difficult combination for the Goald linebacks to overcome.

The Girls' Athletic Association enjoyed a hike and cookout at Swan's Corner on Wednesday.

The annual Mt. Washington trip for girls of the Academy is scheduled for Saturday, October 9. They will be accompanied by Miss Hale and Miss Macdougall.
